

It's 2035 - 20 years from now? What's new for LNIB?

You have the power to influence where we are going!

What is the LNIB Comprehensive Community Plan?

A way of moving from ideas to actions...the LNIB Comprehensive Community Plan (CCP) is a document that the community works on together. The LNIB CCP is a way of gathering information and discovering community direction. The LNIB CCP plan sets out the goals and objectives of the community and then identifies the actions needed to achieve the goals and objectives. The LNIB CCP sets out the steps that need to be completed to reach a desired future. We plan to have a finished draft of the CCP ready for the community's review in June 2016.

What are the sections in the CCP? So far, we are looking at building the CCP in four sections:

The Past – looks at where we have been and the activities and events that have shaped LNIB.

The Present – this section talks about where we are now with statistics, data and reports that help us to clearly establish benchmarks and the means to monitor growth and change.

The Future – sets out where we want to go. This section is developed from community input and the data collected on our lands and resources. It sets out the goals and objectives for the community.

Community Action Plan – this section is all about action. It establishes who is responsible (departments, groups or individuals) and sets out timelines for achievements. A monitoring framework is also included in this section.

Why should I participate in the CCP?

This is a community plan and needs community involvement to be successful. Participating ensures that your voice is heard on:

- Deciding on a preferred future
- Reinforcing community values
- Identifying priorities for people, finances, and all issues.

Copies of the surveys will be available at the front desk of all the Band, Health and Education Offices, the website, sent out via email...and of course from Leanne Joe anytime.

What do you think of this statement as a vision for LNIIB?

"Realizing our true power, fulfilling our responsibility to our ancestors, and creating peace and prosperity for future generations."

Does it fit the questions of who we are, where we've been and where we are going? If so, in what sense? and If not, what would be more fitting?

What do you think of this statement as a mission statement for LNIIB?

"We, the Lower Nicola Indian Band Council, as Stewards of nte?képux Pel Timixt, in the spirit, devote our efforts in pursuing socio-economic opportunities while protecting and enhancing our traditional land and cultural values."

Does it fit the what the Band does for its members and its employees as well as other stakeholders and communities surrounding it? If so, in what sense? and If not, what would be more fitting?

What do you think of these Guiding principles for LNIIB?

- ☞ We, the people of the Lower Nicola Indian Band, commit ourselves to being a peaceful prosperous and secure community made up of healthy individuals rooted in the Nlaka'pamux culture, respecting ourselves, each other, the environment and all of Creation. We will honour and protect our children, the sacred gifts from the Creator, and our elders, the wisdom keepers.
- ☞ Together as one, we will take responsibility to regain control of our own destiny and rebuild our relationships with other people on a firm footing of respect and justice.
- ☞ We will possess our traditional territories and defend our hereditary and Aboriginal rights as Nlaka'pamux people, and promote the unity and strength of the Nlaka'pamux Nation as a whole.
- ☞ We will be a sovereign community with a government based on traditional values, guided by leaders who know and respect the language, culture, and people.
- ☞ We recognize that injustices have been committed against our people: our lands have been occupied, our culture eroded, and our sovereignty denied. We will not allow this to continue and will ensure that it never happens again.
- ☞ In this, the Lower Nicola Indian Band will be a model community that others look to for direction and inspiration. We will realize true power, fulfill our responsibility to our ancestors, and create peace for future generations.

Will these guide the Band throughout its life in all circumstances, regardless of changes in its goals, strategies, type of work, or the top management? If so, in what sense? and If not, what would be more fitting?
